GUIDELINES ON USE OF THE JGCC GOLF COURSE FOR JUNIORS UNDER THE STATE JUNIORS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

The Golf Sub-Committee has resolved on the following guidelines pertaining to juniors playing on or use of the JGCC Golf Course under the State Juniors Development Programme (Johor Juniors).

(A) Permitted Time Of Play

Days	Morning (7.15 am to 12.00 noon)	Afternoon (After 12.00 noon)
Mondays – Fridays	No restriction to tee-off from 7.15 am to 12.00 noon	Tee-off permitted only after 5.30 pm
Saturdays, Sundays & Public Holidays	Not permitted to tee-off	Tee-off permitted only after 5.30 pm

The permitted time of tee-offs stated above is for juniors playing in a group or otherwise. In any circumstances, the course steward on duty must be informed of such tee-off. The club management may, at any time, revoke the play on or use of the golf course of the juniors for reasons of heavy traffic of golfers, poor condition or maintenance of the course, etc.

Only juniors with valid handicaps under the JGCC Handicapping System are eligible to play. Juniors holding Proficiency Certificate must be accompanies by the Junior Coach. The Junior Coach, for coaching purposes only, may obtain leave from the club management to use the golf course other than the time specified above.

Juniors training for a specified national competition may seek permission from the club management for special tee-off time other than the time specified above. Junior members of the club are not subjected to the above but shall be subjected to the other Bye-Laws in the club.

Juniors may carry their own golf bags to play. For those who engage a caddie, they shall be subjected to the similar bye-laws governing members. Only one caddie can be used at any time of playing. Juniors are not allowed to caddie for another junior.

Juniors may wear shorts or in the case of girls skirts may be worn. Golf shoes with socks must be worn while playing golf. T-shirts shall be tugged in at all times.
